

HARFORD TRANSIT LINK NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Harford Transit LINK will hold a public hearing on Harford County, Maryland's FY 2020 application to the Maryland Transit Administration (MTA) and the Federal Transit Administration (FTA) for state and federal funds to finance the FY 2020 transit service in Harford County. At the hearing, information will be presented and available for review on Harford Transit LINK's FY 2020 Annual Transportation Plan and application to the MTA/FTA for state and federal funds to finance operational and capital needs.

Requests will be for operating assistance through:

- Section 5307 to operate the Fixed Routes and ADA Demand Response services;
- SSTAP (Statewide Special Transportation Assistance Program) to provide trips for the elderly and those with disabilities;
- Capital grants for preventive maintenance, replacement vehicles, communications equipment, other equipment and services;
- Other Formula and Discretionary transit grant programs, which may become available during the program year.

Additionally, information will be presented and available for review on Harford Commute Smart's FY 2020 Rideshare grant application.

The hearing will be held:

- Tuesday, February 5, 2019, 1:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m. at McFaul Activity Center, Bel Air, which is served directly by Harford Transit LINK Bus Route 6 with connections to Routes 1 and 2 through Harford Mall.
